

PARKS AND RECREATION MASTER PLAN UPDATE 2025

WHAT IS THE PARKS AND RECREATION MASTER PLAN?

The City of Surprise Parks and Recreation Master Plan is a bold 15-year vision designed to shape the future of our parks, open spaces, and recreation system.

It looks closely at what we have today, what the community needs tomorrow, and how we can create high-quality, accessible, and sustainable places for everyone to enjoy.

This plan drives forward the city's commitment to balanced growth and an exceptional quality of life, ensuring that future investments reflect community priorities and long-term goals.

HOW CAN YOU GET INVOLVED?

Your voice is shaping the future of parks and recreation in Surprise. Throughout the planning process, community members can participate in public meetings, surveys, and engagement events to share ideas and help set priorities.

Updates and opportunities to get involved will be shared through the city's website, social media channels, and community events—ensuring everyone has a chance to contribute.
